

A 、 The ways of communications between the Independent Directors and the Internal Audit Officer and the CPA

- a. After having presented the audit and follow-up reports to the Chairman, the Internal Audit officer submits the same reports via email for review by the independent Directors on a monthly basis. The Internal Audit officer communicates with the Independent Directors in person at least quarterly.

The Internal Audit Officer presents the findings of the audit reports in the meetings of the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors. Ensure that all the Independent Directors have adequate access to how audit performs.

- b. In the meetings of the Audit Committee every half year, the CPAs present the findings and lack of internal control by checking or reviewing the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries to the Independent Directors.
